

Dextin Brown, 4, gets a free haircut from Omar Aguila, 64, at the 305 Kings & Queens Salon in the Northside Flea Market in Miami.

PHOTOS: MATIAS J. OCNB mocnjb@miamiherald.com

A NEW LOOK FOR THE SCHOOL YEAR

About 150 Miami students were treated to free haircuts recently to give them a sharp, fresh look for the new year and the new school term.

KIPP Miami, a national network of nonprofit charter schools that operates schools in Liberty City (KIPP Sunrise) and Little River (KIPP Liberty), hosted the event. The haircuts were for children 5-13 years old.

The haircuts took place at the 305 Kings & Queens Salon at the Northside Flea Market, 7900 NW 27th Ave.

Starlevon Marshall, 8, a student at Coconut Grove Elementary, gets a free haircut from Omar Aguila, 64, at the 305 Kings & Queens Salon in the Northside Flea Market in Miami. KIPP Miami, a national network of nonprofit charter schools, hosted the event recently.

Adryen Brooks, 10, a fourth grader at Coconut Grove Elementary, gets a free haircut from Omar Aguila, 64, who enjoys a Cuban coffee as he cuts his hair at the 305 Kings & Queens Salon in the Northside Flea Market in Miami.